THE BLOCK

is back!

Everyone's favourite renovation reality show The Block is back and bigger than ever, and this year there's a new judge: Selling Houses Australia's resident interior designer, Shaynna Blaze. A massive fan of the series, Shaynna can't wait to see what the new batch of contestants have to offer. So what's her number-one piece of advice? 'Look at the house as a whole before you attempt one room,' she says. Here, Shaynna introduces us to some of this year's eager renovators.

Catch new judge Shaynna when The Block premieres Monday, April 16, 7pm, Channel Nine.

Rana & Brett, Vic

'I think this is a great match-up as a team. Mum will surely bring a mature design aesthetic and her son looks like he's got what it takes to see it through.'

Brad & Lara, NSW

'I don't know much about their design style. They don't know either, but they're both competitive sports people, so I'm sure they'll be bringing their A-game.'

Larry & Jessie, Qld

'This father/daughter team should be fantastic as long as he does the heavy lifting and she gets her say. I'm very excited to see what they have in store for us.'
